We have decided to start the Playford Ball at 7 o'clock this year, hoping that this will allow more people to come. As we have invited Alan Davies, we are hoping that many who went on his dance holidays will come to renew friendships. Those who haven't been before will find Alan a very clear and friendly caller. Shane and Julia will give us a great lead. The dances are a varied mix of styles; some familiar, some lively, some graceful.

The time of the New Year's Dance has also been changed as an experiment. It will now run in the late afternoon/early evening and should simplify the winter travelling.

The musicians' workshops, 'playing for dancing'. There were just not enough people willing to play or support these, so they are now cancelled. Thanks very much to Linda Dorman for all her hard work in the planning and coordinating of the Sunday afternoons. A great pity, as everyone would have learned such a lot from Maggie. Luckily, Maggie is helping to run the St Audries Bay week again next year with Poppy Wetherall and Rod Stradling.

We remember the following who have died since the last newsletter. The folk world appreciates the work they have done and will miss them.

Ken Pearson 11 Oct 1924 - 31 July 2013

Beryl Belson, Cliff Davis (both from Chesham)

A loose one-sheet questionnaire for social dancers is buried amongst the other flyers in the EDSS Magazine. Please, please fill this in and send it back as we need our voices to be heard.

There will be no Carols and Customs at Cecil Sharp House this year.

The St George's Day Event will be on 26th April next year. The workshops afternoon will use both the Old Barn Hall and the (usual) Drake Hall. The international workshop will be dances from other places with patron Saint George.

We still need a new secretary. A lot of the paperwork is getting further and further behind! Do you know anyone who is happy on a computer? (not me, thanks! - Ed)
